Early Morning Traffic Crash Results in a Fatality

This morning, August 23, at approximately 6:00 a.m., LCSO responded to Blountstown Highway (Highway 20) at the intersection of Geddie Road regarding a traffic crash involving two vehicles.

The preliminary investigation has determined a four door Infinity was traveling west on Blountstown Highway approaching Geddie Road. A Ford F150 was traveling east bound and attempted to turn North onto Geddie Road. The Ford F150 attempted to turn north onto Geddie Road in front of the Infinity. The Infinity, driven by Haroon Tariq, 23 years of age, collided with the Ford F150 resulting in a crash.

Both drivers were transported to TMH for their injuries. Tariq was pronounced dead at TMH. The Leon County Sheriff's Office Traffic Homicide Unit is continuing the investigation.
