FSU Grad Student Edward Neuse Located Deceased

On Saturday, March 25, 2017, at approximately 7:50 a.m. a Florida Wildlife Commission Officer located a truck parked off Forest Road 305. Upon further inspection of the vehicle the officer located a deceased male in the bed of the truck. The Leon County Sheriff's Office was notified and assumed the investigation.

During the investigation deputies were able to confirm the truck was connected to the disappearance of Edward H. Neuse, 26. The disappearance was being investigated by The Tallahassee Police Department as a missing person. The LCSO immediately notified the TPD of the finding.

The identity of the deceased has been positively confirmed as Edward H. Neuse. Both agencies have been working closely together and no foul play is suspected in the case.
