Jade Massage Parlor Employee Arrested for Prostitution

The Leon County Sheriff's Office continues to crack down on businesses that are used as fronts for prostitution. On September 28, 2016, the LCSO arrested 50 year old Jing Zhong for solicitation of prostitution.

The Leon County Sheriff's Office VICE Narcotics Unit had received complaints regarding illegal activity occurring at the Jade Massage Parlor located at 326 Williams Street. An investigation was initiated and on September 28, an undercover operation was conducted at the business. The undercover detective entered the business and made contact with Jade employee, Jing Zhong. During the transaction Zhong offered to perform a sexual act in exchange for payment. At that point Zhong was taken into custody without incident.

Zhong was arrested and transported to the Leon County Jail.
