LCSO Arrests One for Attempted Murder

Last night, around 9:30 PM, the Leon County Sheriff's Office was called to the 4400 block of Rabbit Pond Road in reference to a male who had been stabbed and a female who had been hit with an object.

Once on scene, deputies were able to determine 28-year-old Austin Day had gotten into an argument with his parents. During the course of the argument, Day used an unknown object to strike his mother on the head. He also struck his father with an unknown object and used a knife to stab him. Both were transported, via ambulance, to a local hospital for non-life threatening injuries.

Day had fled the scene prior to LCSO arriving at the residence. Deputies located Day a short time later. Day was taken to the Leon County Detention Facility.

ARRESTED: Austin E Day

DOB: 8/16/1990

CHARGES: Attempted Homicide (2 counts)
Aggravated Battery (2 counts)
