LCSO Deputies Make Methamphetamine Arrest

Yesterday, the Leon County Sheriff's Office arrested Samuel Dwayne Butler, 54, for Trafficking and Sale of Methamphetamine.

At approximately 10:00 p.m. Butler was driving on Veteran Memorial Highway when deputies observed a traffic violation. They conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle. After identifying Butler as the driver they determined Butler also had a warrant for his arrest for Sale of Methamphetamine. Butler was taken into custody without incident. An LCSO K-9, who had arrived at the scene, subsequently alerted to the presence of illegal narcotics in Butler's vehicle. As a result, Deputies found Butler in possession of over 8 ounces of methamphetamine.

Butler was transported to the Leon County Jail.
