LCSO Goes #ALLin for Breast Cancer Awareness

Tonight, you can see some of our area's finest, outside of their comfort zone, all for a great cause! The Leon County Sheriff's Office is hosting the Patrol Stroll: ALLin for a Cure. 17 members of our local law enforcement agencies will take part in an epic fashion show, in the middle of Madison Street.

More than 255,000 new cases of invasive breast cancer will be diagnosed in the U.S., this year alone. Breast cancer affects everyone - women and men. That's why the American Cancer Society recruited men from our community to help fight breast cancer, through their "Real Men Wear Pink" campaign. Sheriff Walt McNeil is honored to be one of those men.

Tonight's event is a fundraiser for the Real Men Wear Pink Campaign. A VIP reception begins at 6 p.m., inside Madison Social. Then, the entertainment will move just outside the venue for the fashion show with an epic finale!

The event will conclude with a check presentation to Making Strides Against Breast Cancer's Real Men Wear Pink Campaign.
