LCSO Identifies Man Found Deceased in 2015

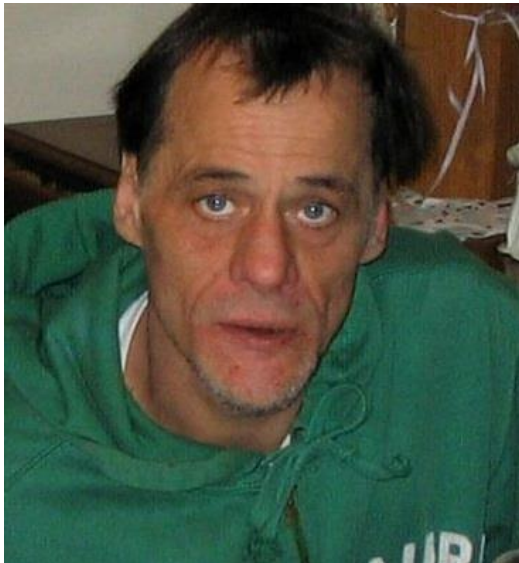

The Leon County Sheriff's Office has positively identified a man found deceased near the Ochlocknee River Bridge and Highway 27 North in 2015.

On December 17, 2015, Troopers with the Florida Highway Patrol located a white male, now identified as 56 year old Michael Lee Alexander, deceased on the river bank.

Alexander appears to have been hit by a vehicle, which then left the scene of the accident.

Alexander was a transient. He was reported missing by his mother, who lives in Ft. Walton Beach, Florida. He has also lived in Connecticut with family.

Investigators are still looking for information about what happened with Alexander. If you have any information in regards to the circumstances surrounding Alexander's death please call Deputy James Pittman at 850-606-3300
