LCSO is Looking for Deputy of the Year and Correctional Officer of the Year Nominations 2015 - 2016

The Leon County Sheriff's Office Announces the annual "Leon County Deputy of the Year Award" and "Leon County Correctional Officer of the Year Award"

The Leon County Sheriff's Office (LCSO) Citizen's Academy Alumni Association (CAAA) has established an annual "Leon County Deputy of the Year Award" and "Leon County Correctional Officer of the Year Award" to be presented to an outstanding Deputy and Correctional Officer during October of each year.

In keeping with the mission of the Association to "promote and preserve a close relationship between the alumni, the community and the LCSO," the intent of the award is to provide a way for the CAAA to recognize a Deputy and Correctional Officer that has been identified by a citizen for outstanding service to the community.

Anyone can nominate a Deputy or Correctional Officer for outstanding service performed in Leon County during the designated time period of September 1, 2015 and September 1, 2016. While the event/service must take place in Leon County, the person making the nomination does not have to be a resident of Leon County.

Deputies and Correctional Officers are serving the community in many types of situations each day. The categories of outstanding service to be recognized include; heroic life saving event, distinguished above and beyond service, community involvement, exemplary level of professionalism.

Please use the attached nomination forms. After the nomination deadline, the nominations will be reviewed by a panel consisting of the Sheriff, members of CAAA and members of the community.

The award will consist of a cash award and engraved plaque. The award presentation will be made at the graduation banquet of the LCSO Citizen's Academy on October 11, 2016.
