LCISO's Patrol Stroll Wins Top Statewide Award

Last week, the Leon County Sheriff's Office's Patrol Stroll: ALLin for a Cure won the top statewide Golden Image Community Relations Award from the Florida Public Relations Association. The Patrol Stroll also received the Judge's Award in the Community Relations category. The awards were presented at the organization's annual conference in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida.

LCISO hosted the epic law enforcement fashion show last October, to raise funds and awareness for the Making Strides Against Breast Cancer's Real Men Wear Pink campaign. The formal fashion show was held in the middle of Madison Street and included law enforcement from numerous local agencies. Sheriff Walt McNeil was one of the Real Men Wear Pink participants and was the top, local fundraiser, contributing $23,000.

Sheriff McNeil continues to emphasize the importance of community policing and our deputies contributing to worthy causes.

LCISO has declared the Patrol Stroll, benefiting the Real Men Wear Pink campaign, an annual event. It will return to CollegeTown on October 18th. A community-wide block party will kick off at 6 p.m. followed by the fashion show at 7 p.m.
