Leon County Sheriff's Office Launches "Operation ALLin"

In a continuous and sustained effort to fight crime, the Leon County Sheriff's Office is utilizing existing partnerships with local and state law enforcement to launch "Operation ALLin."

The Florida Highway Patrol's Criminal Interdiction Unit will assist in the fight against guns, drugs and gangs on our local streets. CIU consists of specially trained troopers from around the state who are equipped with sophisticated interdiction equipment. The CIU members will join local law enforcement agencies in the detection and apprehension of drug traffickers and other criminal offenders in the area. Due to the transient nature of criminal activity, this operation will not be confined to Leon County, but will encompass surrounding counties as well.

LCSO continues to look for new ways to enhance our "ALLin" initiative, to make Leon County safer.
