LCSO School Resource Deputy Arrests Student with Gun

On September 29, 2021, Godby High School administrators received information a student, later identified as 17-year-old Antron Reynolds was smoking marijuana at a nearby apartment complex around the school's lunch time hour, on multiple occasions.

Administrators made contact with Reynolds on campus and upon searching the vehicle, the administrators found a loaded, 9mm caliber Taurus handgun. The administrators removed and secured the firearm from the vehicle and notified the school resource deputy. The deputy responded to the vehicle and took Reynolds into custody. The student was charged with possessing a firearm on school property.

Arrested: Antron Reynolds

DOB: 10/20/2003

Charges: Possession of Firearm on School Property
